

St. Hugh's Yearbook STOP PRESS Section

The following was obtained by ourselves after the Yearbook was sent to the printers. The photos are of members of the 1994 Class who recently strayed too close to St. Hugh's to avoid the camera.

St. Hugh's (Yearbook) Website?

There is a possibility that a such a site might be set up to enable past St. Hugh's members to find out current e-mail addresses of their old companions, and which would also carry news about events at St. Hugh's. It could also hold the current and future Yearbooks electronically (this has already been tested) so that they could be updated with any new information about the students; marriages, change of addresses etc. E-mail me for details (dschutze@geocities.com) and when the site is up I'll be able to pass on the web address.

Daniel Schütze

Faisal Naru's yearbook entry:

"From Faisal Naruster to Faisal the Hughster"

I began here a lad
to leave home I was sad
But then coming to Hughs was one of lifes' greatest cruise.....

I began with long hair but now my heads bare I still style my beard
although sometimes it's weird (my zebra strips, arrows and lightening strikes).....

I began loving food

so in the kitchen I had to be a dude
To burn it off I play sport
+ for hughs rep hard I have fought (Badminton, Football, Cricket, Basketball even Netball).....

I began with my music to blare for all my corridor to share Now they all dance Hip Hop together we all have a "bop".....

I began here a lad
to leave here I'm now sad But my memories I will take and friendships that will never break.....

Richard Cole, Law

Cecily Crampin, Mathematics

Mary Minihan, English

Jonathan Sharples, Biochemistry

Emma Williamson, Law

Vikki Willson, English